The Trust

All India Islamic Education Trust (AIET) was established in 2004 at Wadi Uloom Puliyavu with an objective to impart practical and value based education in the backward areas of this part of the country. The Trust is headed by outstanding personalities who enrich their career in the spheres of educational, social and cultural importance. National College of Arts & Science is the first project of the trust, and it aims at developing the college as a first grade post graduate, research and residential in the state. In addition to it the trust is planning to implement 33 projects. The Trust aims at imparting quality education, for girls. Considering the educational backwardness of the areas, guidance, counselling and coaching for competitive examinations are being planned in our institution.
